

You CAN Make a Difference!!

The Office of Violence Against Women Grant invites all students to attend Bystander Intervention Training.

This free training will position you to actively intervene in incidents of domestic/dating violence, stalking and sexual assault (DVSAS). We will discuss the following:

- Definitions of key terms
- · Review and application of violence-reduction strategies
- Warning signs of DVSAS
- Barriers to being an active bystander

To attend, students MUST rsvp by emailing OVW Program Director Alexandra Glumac at aglumac@ssc.edu with the date they'd like to attend. Confirmation will be sent along with the link for the training session.

Students will be required to complete an online evaluation of the training in order to receive a certificate of completion. We also ask that students keep their cameras on during the training to ensure maximum benefit.

Reservations MUST be made by noon or before the day of the workshop.
